FROLIC TO HONOR GRID LADS

HOLD-UP OF WAR TUG ADDS TO RIVALS' IRE; ASSURES HOT BATTLE

Class Leaders Promise Annual Scrap Wednesday Evening;
Both Expect Victory.

ICY FLOOD FOR THE LOSERS

Frosh Victory Will Lift Most Drastic Soph Regulations.

Robbed of the annual pleasure of drenching members of a rival class by two postponements of the annual Sophomore-Freshman tug of war, G. W.'s underclass lads can be expected to enter the prime class scrap of the year with blood in their eyes and a determination to establish the supremacy of their respective classes by dragging the opposing tuggers through a stream of cold Potomac water.

Determined to end the delay in conducting the contest, presidents of the rival classes have undertaken its management and have promised the battle will occur next Wednesday night, December 7, at 8 o'clock, in Potomac Park, near the statue of the earliest water hero of the United States, John Paul Jones. A steady stream of water will be poured across the middle of the field from the nozzle of a giant fire hose until the losers have been pulled through it.

Clyde Tolson, president of the Columbian College Sophomores, is arranging for the installation of an army searchlight on the battlefield, so that the numerous spectators who are expected to appear to encourage their favorites to victory can view the struggle.

Realizing that their freedom from the most drastic of the new Frosh regulations, that of wearing green and black ribbons if they suffer defeat in the tug of war, the Freshies are corraling their forces to defeat the higher classmen. "We'll appear on the battleground practically 100 per cent strong, and I expect a victory for the Freshmen which will wipe out memories of the Sophomore victory at our election," confidently declared Graham Fly, president of the Columbian College Freshmen, and Sophomore President Tolson is equally as confident of the prowess of his men.

Some of Washington's distinguished visitors who have been struggling with the problems of water strength limitation will probably witness the land and water war, almost in the shadow of their official home.

TRY-OUTS FOR VARSITY DEBATE SET FOR DEC. 16

Try-outs for the George Washington-West Virginia-Swarthmore triangular debate teams will be held at the George Washington University Law School on Friday, December 16, 1921, at 1:30 p. m.

The subject to be debated at the try-outs is: "Resolved, That the United States should adopt a sales tax on the final turnover of consumable goods."

Fake Bucks of Old Rivals Down G. W. as Season Ends

Football for the 1921 season is now history and as last year Catholic University, with a light, speedy, fighting Irish eleven, defeated the stronger G. W. eleven, 19 to 7. Overconfidence, lack of ability to get the breaks and solve the C. U. formations brought about the Hatchette downfall.

Saturday was a day of thrills, spills, mud and hard football, and kept a fair-sized crowd in clamor. The first half was marred by fumbles and penalties, with the C. U. team the chief offender, but both teams settled down later in the game.

The big thrill of the game came early in the second half, when Curran dashed off tackle, through the entire G. W. team, and had a clear field for what appeared to be a sure score, but after speeding some 70 yards he was pulled down from behind by a desperate tackle by Capt. Bailee Springston. Curran was the outstanding star of the game for the Black and Red, his off tackle dashes and forward passes having a great deal to do with the Hatchette defeat. "Heinie" Jawish,

To Tame Fierce Frosh With Wily Soph Symphony

Money for music! Shekels for symphony! This plea displaced the Sophomore war cry, "Swat the Fly," during the week just fled as Soph leaders assailed their fellow classmates for 50 coppers with which to enlist the aid of a popular refined brass band, familiarly known as the jazz orchestra, to assure the success of the first Sophomore mixer of the year, to be held in Lisner Hall Tuesday, December 6.

Truly, the second year men are establishing themselves as able strategists in the field of class scraps. Successful in removing the Frosh president from his pedestal in less than the time required for that well-known effort of the symbol of the ideal Freshman, the shake of a lamb's tail, they now intend to present a new play, namely to stay the attempts of the yearlings to disturb the Soph revels by luring them into the region of festivities with the irresistible strains of their musical cohorts.

With the aid of King Music, who, it is held, can charm the savage heart, the Sophs not only hope to insure a tranquil eye, but to make the spell-bound Frosh remain and assist in the success of the function in their meager way by serving refreshments and clearing the floor for dancing.

PRESIDENT SUPPORTS ENOSINIAN REVIVAL

President Howard L. Hodgkins, Prof. L. R. Alden and Prof. E. L. Kayser, all former Enosinian men, have pledged their support in the maintenance of the Enosinian Society, to be reorganized December 7 in the chapel of Lisner Hall at 8 p. m.

These faculty members, all speaking from personal experience in the society, expressed the sincere hope that a large number of students would be present for the first meeting and assume an active interest in the society thereafter.

SPANISH CLUB TO GIVE FIRST DANCE TONIGHT

El Circulo Espanol, the Spanish Club of the University, will hold its first mixer of the year in the chapel for all students of Spanish tonight. It is planned to have this meeting serve as an introduction of the Spanish Club to the many students of that language who have not yet become members or attended any of the meetings of the club, and endeavor to enlist their interest in its work.

El Circulo Espanol was formed by the students of the University shortly before the midyear examinations in 1921, and during the remainder of that year enjoyed unusual success. Its purpose is to spread the knowledge of the Spanish language and customs among the students, and it is for this purpose the Club is holding this mixer.

TO MAKE ANY POSTER.
The Arts Club announces they will make posters for any purpose on as short notice as possible for a nominal sum. This service is at the disposal of any G. W. organization.

"Dinty" Hughes and Shaw put up a stalwart defense for the Buff and Blue, while Loehler consistently out-punted Lynch, the C. U. kicker. Line-up and summary:

Capital's Huge Ballroom Again Scene of Giant Party Fri. Night Till Sat. Morning

HOP DATE CHANGED

Because it was found impossible to secure the Arcade auditorium on the night of December 5, the date previously announced for the dance, the hop has been postponed until Friday, December 9. The hour of the dance, 9 p. m., will remain the same, and all other arrangements for the function will be carried out as originally planned, Bryan Morse and Glenn Corbett, who are managing the affair, announced.

To score a social touchdown, the Student Council and the Senior classes of the University will unite their forces and push across a mammoth football hop on the Arcade "gridiron," Fourteenth Street at Park Road Northwest, Friday evening, December 9.

This climax to the football season is expected to become an annual score on the social calendar of the University, according to "Coach" Bryan Morse, Director of Student Activities, and "Quarterback" Glenn Corbett, chairman of the Student Council social committee, who have mapped out the plays which will feature the thrilling combat of Glee vs. Gloom, when more than a thousand G. W. gallants will snap into action, accompanied by timid co-eds making their premier appearance as pigskin pushers, promptly at 9 o'clock, the hour set for the kickoff.

Will Amaze Capital.

Preparations of the Student Council and Senior class presidents and plans for the celebration already made public indicate that George Washington will again stage a party which will amaze the entire city, as did the May Masquerade Carnival last spring. Plans for Christmas dances by the Student Council, Interfraternity Association and classes have been abandoned in order that every organization at G. W. U. might give the Football Hop its undivided support.

Engaging the huge Arcade dance auditorium, the largest ballroom in Washington, for the second time in the history of the University, the committee is anticipating the attendance of more than 2,000 loyal G. W. rooters to honor the boys who have carried the school through a successful season.

PRESIDENT HARDING INVITED.

President Harding, delegates to the conference on the limitation of armaments, District Commissioners Rudolph Oyster and Keller, Col. Clarence O. Sherrill, superintendent of public buildings and grounds; Washington school heads, and University officials have been invited, and the members of

Musical Comedy In 1922 Venture Of G. W. Talent

Work on a G. W. U. musical comedy, to be presented early next spring, will begin at once, according to an announcement of Bryan Morse, Director of Student Activities. The first rehearsal will be held Wednesday, December 7, in the chapel of Lisner Hall, Director Morse stated.

A cast of 50 will be required, and in order to select talent for the show, try-outs will be held at intervals beginning next week. Announcements concerning try-outs will be posted on the bulletin boards in a few days. Unlike many college musical productions, the cast will be composed of both men and women.

The musical comedy will be directed by William S. Becker, C. C. '23, and F. W. Ross, C. C. '24. The music is being written by Harold A. Krell, a score writer for Cecil B. De Mille productions and one of the leading musical directors in Cleveland, Ohio. The lyrics are being written by Clyde M. Kramer. The book of the show has been produced by students in the University. In dress rehearsals the production will be polished by E. Mortimer Shuter, a New York director.

WILL PLANT GREENWICH VILLAGE NEAR SCHOOL

Winifred Devoe was elected president of the Arts Club at its first meeting of the year, held in Lisner Hall November 29. Jesse Joseph Webb Palmer was chosen vice president and Miss Phoebe Gates secretary-treasurer.

The club is considering a campaign for increased membership. As an inducement, the club announces rooms have been offered the club in the vicinity of the University for their Bohemian quarters, and they will fit them up in true Greenwich Village style as soon as sufficient "atmosphere" can be collected from among the members.

Candidates for membership must present at the next meeting, the latter part of this month, a drawing suitable for publication in The Hatchet as proof of their sincerity.

PYRAMID WILL ELECT NEW MEMBERS SUNDAY

Names of candidates for the fall election and initiation to the Pyramid Honor Society will be presented at the meeting of the society to be held Sunday. Only Seniors are eligible for election to the society at the fall election.

With the 1921 football season on its last legs, now is the open season for football sharks and dopesters to pick their mythical elevens.

Far be it from us to claim infallibility, but the above teams are, in our opinion, the ideal elevens from local collegiate circles. The line is heavy, weighing from end to end an average of 187 pounds. At the flanks Ptak and Florence, both of them tall, rangy and fast, have few equals in pulling in the overhead heaves, and defensively they are both sure tackles. LaFountain is not far behind them defensively, but lacks their offensive play.

HUGHES AT CENTER.

At tackles Nisbet and Sullivan have played consistently all season, while the guards, Jawish and Comstock, are strong and rugged and carry plenty of beef. Comstock last year was put on the All South Atlantic team.

At the center of the line Dinty Hughes of G. W. stands out head and shoulders above the other passers. During the entire season he has not

FROSH LEADERS PLOT TO REVENGE CAPTURE OF G. FLY BY SOPHS

Abductors Mark Time After Complete Victory in First of Interclass Battles

"WON'T REPEAT WIN"—FLY

Could Have Routed Sophs on Night of Capture, He Says.

"Sweet is the bliss of love's first kiss, Sweet is the thought of heavenly rest, Sweet is the coating of a pill. But, ah-h, REVENGE is sweeter still!"

Revenge, deep, dark revenge; revenge, blood curdling, nasty; sweet revenge is what the Frosh are planning against the naughty Sophs who broke up their meeting the other night. Graham Fly, famous as he of the "sheepish grin," has gathered his cohorts and huskies around him and has laid mean plans to wreak the beaks of the husky Sophs.

HONOR FLABBERGASTED HIM.

"We can do it," he says confidently. "Why, you just ought to see us go when we get started. That wasn't at all nice; that trick the Sophs pulled. If I'd said, 'Throw them birds out,' the other night, instead of reading that letter, it wouldn't have happened. Really, I was so overcome by the results of my nice laid plans—I mean I was so flabbergasted at the honor the class had given me, I didn't know just what to do. But I had lotsa time to think it all over when I was coming home that night. And I'm here to state that Mr. Sophomore will grin on the other side of his jaw when us Frosh get goin'."

Mr. Fly has only one tune he is humming nowadays, and that's the gadget at the top of this lil' yarn. Sweet revenge is what he sees and thinks, and every time he grabs a hot dog and smothers it in mustard he thinks how nice it would be if this same dog were smothered with arsenic and each Soph had to take a bite.

PROMISES RULES FOR SOPHS.

"We ain't goin' to pay a bit of attention to these rules," he says further. "We're going to post rules of our own and make these adulated dumbbells walk a tape line or a plank. 'Sweet is the bliss,' you know."

Now all this sounds sweet to the upperclassmen and the more they do it, the better it will be. But the haughty uppers won't be content until the Frosh or the Sophs take that yap of a Frosh that rode to Alexgezippe with the Ford and Fly, and shear his cranium or something. And we have inside dope that the uppers will do it if the unders don't.

made a poor pass, and defensively he has been a "wonder." He has blocked at least five kicks and been down and made the tackle in the majority of punts. Wertz, Georgetown's veteran center, is a strong man, but would have to travel to beat out "Zeke" Bailey of Maryland had Bailey not been injured against Syracuse.

THREE BACKS TO GEORGETOWN.

Georgetown shows the greatest strength in the backfield and earns three positions on the team. Brewer (Maryland) and Flavin (Georgetown) are "triple threat" men, both being able to kick, pass or skirt the ends with ability. Brewer several times saved his team by great drop kicking, while Flavin's long punts aided Georgetown materially. McQuade and Kenyon are great line plungers. Kenyon, however, only had a little edge on Licarione, who plays a wonderful defensive game, although he is not so strong offensively as Kenyon. Brewer is placed at quarterback because no real capable field general was found on the five teams, and Untz has at times called the signals.

G. W. U. TO RESTAGE BASKETBALL TOURNEY

The second annual Interscholastic Championship Basketball Tournament conducted under the supervision of George Washington University will be held February 21, 22 and 23, 1922. To date 32 preparatory and high schools have been invited to participate. Baltimore City College won the South Atlantic championship in the first tournament, which was held last year.

The Need of Better Facilities

George Washington University, since its founding, has been hindered in its development by the lack of financial support and proper facilities. The fathers of our University struggled under inadequate equipment and advantages, enduring disheartening difficulties, which should endear them forever in our hearts. Our institution has now passed through a century of struggle, and is now taking its place in collegedom as a first-class university in scholastic, athletic and student activity standards.

It seems only just that since we have evaded these drawbacks and have made the school what it is today, we should begin to realize the fruits of their labors. Taking into consideration the rapid growth of George Washington in the past few years, this campaign for better equipment appears as an opportune step in our advancement. We need buildings adequate for our increased enrollment, a campus, a gymnasium, laboratories, assembly halls and an endowment fund.

We are especially fortunate in having for our President a man who is both broadminded and progressive. He has been associated with our University long enough to realize our needs and aspirations. He is endeavoring to fulfill our long-felt hopes in the waging of a campaign for facilities and endowment, but he is meeting with opposition. There are some members of our faculty and Board of Trustees who are content to let our George Washington struggle on as it has for the past century and who are satisfied with the difficult progress we are making.

On an issue of as grave import as this students have little voice. The advisability of taking such a step rests wholly with the heads of our institution, and we may almost consider it a challenge to them to decide whether they wish to make this a better University or leave it hindered for proper facilities. However, the least we students can do to voice our approval in the matter is to keep up the fight in school activities and uphold the scholastic standards which have been set for us.

Hooray for Basketball!

The basketball season is off. A glance over our schedule shows us that we have a creditable list of games, which should instill spirit and enthusiasm in every one of us. The greater part of the games are to be played at home, allowing us a twofold advantage, for our own enjoyment and for the support of the team. There is every indication, from the number and type of men that have reported to the Director of Student Activities, that we have the material for welding together a really good team. This is more evidence of the rapid growth of George Washington University. Let us as students give basketball the same support that we have given to football, attend every game, organize a fullfledged cheering section and give to the team every consideration in our power. Here's to you—basketball!

STUDY SLAVE SAYS:

If they keep on postponing the tug of war, it will be too late. The freshmen will be sophomores.

If the sophomores keep on acting as they have been, the freshmen better get some Tanglefoot if they want to keep Fly in their midst.

The sophomores have scheduled a mixer. The question is whether the mixer will be between the sophs or whether the frosh will also mix it.

A nice quiet affair was the frosh election. A few chairs hurled through the air and the lights yanked off the walls, etc., yet it was so still you could hear a fly walk—(and he walked from Virginia).

Dear Studs: What is the difference between a freshman and a sophomore? Answer: About 20 credits.

Why Is Iron Magnetic?

A horse-shoe magnet attracts a steel needle. But why? We don't know exactly. We do know that electricity and magnetism are related.

In dynamos and motors we apply electro-magnetic effects. All our power-stations, lighting systems, electric traction and motor drives, even the ignition systems of our automobiles, depend upon these magnetic effects which we use and do not understand.

Perhaps if we understood them we could utilize them much more efficiently. Perhaps we could discover combinations of metals more magnetic than iron.

The Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company investigate magnetism by trying to find out more about electrons and their arrangement in atoms.

X-rays have shown that each iron atom consists of electrons grouped around a central nucleus—like planets around an infinitesimal sun. X-rays enable us to some extent to see into the atom and may at last reveal to us what makes for magnetism.

This is research in pure science, and nothing else. Only thus can real progress be made.

Studies of this kind are constantly resulting in minor improvements. But some day a discovery may be made which will enable a metallurgist to work out the formula for a magnetic alloy which has not yet been cast, but which will surely have the properties required. Such a result would be an achievement with tremendous possibilities. It would improve all electric generators, motors, and magnetic devices.

In the meantime the continual improvement in electrical machinery proceeds, in lesser steps. These summed up, constitute the phenomenal progress experienced in the electrical art during the past twenty-five years.

YEARLINGS CHALLENGE POWERS TO FORCE RULES

Attempt to Defeat Sophs' Century-Old Aim by Adopting Fresh Regulations With Nullifying Reservation.

Freshmen of G. W. lived up to their reputation of absolute disregard for Sophomore rules when they passed a resolution which is hailed as a defiance of the mandates of the Class of 1924 for the conduct of the yearlings at the Freshman organization meeting November 22.

The resolution passed was, "We, the members of the Freshman Class, do hereby adopt the code of law recently passed by the Sophomores, provided it can be enforced."

The Sophomore regulation which provoked the Fresh retort was:

"We, the members of the Sophomore Class, George Washington University, in order to promote the best school spirit and rightful activities and to provide the basis for the proper dignity of our class and our successors, do hereby establish the following code of law:

"1. All Freshmen must use only one stairway in Lisner Hall, which stairway is the one at the 2021 G Street entrance.

"2. No Freshman functions shall continue after 10:30 p. m. without the approval of the aforementioned organization.

"3. All Freshman entertainments shall be open to representatives of the Sophomore Class, free of charge.

"4. Freshman shall show due respect to all upperclassmen.

"5. No male Freshman shall be seen conversing with upperclass co-eds on or about school premises.

"6. All Freshmen shall wear a black and green ribbon for a period ending at midnight December 24 if defeated in the Sophomore-Freshman tug-of-war.

"7. Freshmen are not allowed to occupy the benches in front of Lisner Hall or adjacent school property."

Proper steps looking to the enforcement of the aforesaid regulations will be promptly executed, Soph leaders maintained when they heard of the action of the first-year men.

CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES ON RABBIT'S COUNTER

An innovation in the usual conduct of the Rabbit Hole is to begin tomorrow, when the management will institute a sale of Christmas novelties, chief among them being the "Bunny Hole box," a box filled with home-made fudges and candies as the orders are received.

FROLIC TO HONOR GRID MEN

 the Buff and Blue grid team will be the guests of honor.

FOURTEEN-PIECE ORCHESTRA.

The decoration and illumination of the auditorium has been placed in the hands of the Arcade manager, Mr. Willard, for 15 years in charge of an Atlantic City pier, who has guaranteed to transform the hall into a beautiful salon de dance. Manager Willard will also select the orchestra and he has promised to gather 14 jazz syncopators whose music will equal the best that has prevailed in these parts and who will render the latest and most popular melodies throughout more than four hours of dancing, for "Home, Sweet Home" will not be played until after 1 a. m. Saturday morning.

Numerous features will be introduced into the evening's frolic. Such well-known patrons of the terpsichorean art as Jack Daily and "Tex" Nall will vie for honors with actresses from the Shubert-Belasco stage, and petite Carol Taylor, who captivated the dancers at the Armistice Day prom given by the Interfraternity Association.

PRIZE DANCES ON PROGRAM.

Prize, spotlight, moonlight and other feature dances are planned to lend charm and variety to the order of dances. At the conclusion of the third dance the assemblage will participate in a grand march.

The balconies will be attractively draped with fraternity banners, while floral decorations will be banked against the walls. George Washington's Greek letter organizations will occupy boxes, which will be designated by their coats of arms.

PROCEEDS TO REWARD TEAM.

Tickets to the Football Hop have been put on sale for $2.50 per couple at the offices of the Arts and Sciences Department, Law, Medical and Pharmacy Schools. An active ticket-selling campaign will be launched tomorrow morning under the direction of Glen Corbett, Robert Anderson, Robert W. Colfesh, Walter C. Scott, J. Foster Hagen, and J. Fuller Spoerri, and if any of the thousand tickets printed remain unsold they will be disposed of at the entrance to the auditorium.

In keeping with the purpose of the dance, proceeds of the function will first be devoted to the purchase of sweaters and miniature gold footballs for letter men and the remainder of the dance profits will be turned over to the Student Activity Fund to help finance another successful season next year. Corbett announced.

The patrons and patronesses of the evening will be: President and Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, Dean and Mrs. William Allen Wilbur, Dean George Neely Henning, Dean William Carl Ruediger, Dean William Cline Borden, Dean Merton Leroy Person and Dean Henry E. Kalusowski.

VIEW OF EUROPE'S ART FOR 20 G. W. STUDENTS

More than 20 students at George Washington University are planning to continue their course of art study by a tour of the European galleries this summer. The party will be under the personal direction of Dr. Gertrude Brigham, theme instructor in the English department of the University. The tour will be managed by the Temple Tourist Company.

The party will leave New York June 17 and return about August 4. The trip will be made by the Mediterranean route, and Naples, Pompeii, Amalfi, Sorrento, the Blue Grotto, and Rome will be included in the early itinerary. A special audience with the Pope is to be granted.
